We'd like to thank the three anonymous reviewers, Dr. Laurel Larsen, and the four student reviewers from Dr. Teuling's class. You all provided critical, thought-provoking, and insightful comments that will lead to a better final manuscript. We've responded to every comment, however, we were able to group our responses to comments from the three anonymous reviewers and Dr. Larsen into a single document titled "ResponsesToAnonymousReviewers.pdf". The student reviews while insightful and well placed, did not lend to a grouping of comments. We therefore opted to respond to each student reviewer individually. The supplementary file associated with this comment contains our responses to the three anonymous reviewers and Dr. Larsen.
