

Response to Editor's Initial Decision

Editor Initial Decision: Publish subject to minor revisions (Editor review) (11 Dec 2014) by Hannah Cloke

Comments to the Author:

This is an interesting paper, as noted by the referees. They have suggested several minor issues that should be dealt with before publication can be recommended. Thank you for your responses to the referees comments (and your revised manuscript). Please note that revised manuscripts in HESS should only be uploaded following this decision. Please reupload your revised manuscript.

We thank the Editor for the positive feedback. Please find the uploaded revised manuscript as requested.
