Dear Referee #2

We have attached a revised manuscript. Based on the suggestions following major changes were made including answered responses:

- (1) The title has been changed to "Defining Flood Seasons Globally using Temporal Streamflow Patterns."
- (2) We have revised/restructured the focus of the abstract, introduction and conclusion to clarify the objectives and novelties of this study.
- (3) We have extended analyses on minor flood seasons for enhanced contributions.
- (4) We have included the suggested references to the manuscript where appropriate.

Please see our revised manuscript in attached supplement.

Thanks.
