9160, Lines 25 and 30: There is confusion in the technical writing aspect of mentioning ARIMA and then evidently switching conceptually to "Fourier analysis". This review suggests that a proof reading would resolve potential confusion. <author's reply> Author will take care so that the text will be technically correct

9162, Line 9: "this statistics" -> "these statistics" : <author's reply > this is mistake

9168, Line 14: missing minus sign in definition of $A_2(k,t)$? <author's reply > yes, it should be minus
