Dear Editor,

in the attached pages, and in the manuscript itself, we have addressed all of the suggestions, recommendations, comments and corrections that the reviewers have indicated in their reviews. In particular, we have also addressed the questions regarding the calibration approach, as well as major revisions of the text.

C2768

As a result of these changes, the paper is now greatly improved, and we sincerely acknowledge and thank the great investment of time, effort and care that the reviewers and the editor made in reviewing our paper.

Sincerely,

Jorge A. Ramirez Professor of Civil Engineering Colotrado State University e-mail: ramirez@engr.colostate.edu
