Dear Anonymous Referee #2,

Re: Manuscript #HESS-2019-301 entitled “Dynamics of hydrological model parameters: calibration and reliability”.

We sincerely appreciate the referee is favor of the content of this research and the positive evaluation for its scientific significance. The Referee’s constructive suggestions for background, sub-period calibration schemes, and a tool for reliability evaluation are helpful to improve this manuscript. Most importantly, we would make efforts to improve the text and structure of this manuscript. We are very grateful for your great patience on a new improved version of the manuscript.
