

Dear authors,

I congratulate you to a very extensive and well-written manuscript. I am happy to see that all comments were addressed satisfactorily. Particularly the improved introduction, the overview of the GHMs used, and the csv-file in the supplement are very positively received.

I do not have any further comments and find the current version of the manuscript publishable.