

The manuscript has been significantly improved, and I appreciate the authors' efforts to respond to reviewer comments. Specifically, the introduction is greatly improved by the inclusion of a comprehensive literature review and justifications for the selection of variables, particularly with regard to social preferences. I recommend that the manuscript be published as-is.