

Thank you for the good news about the conditional acceptance of the paper. We summarize the remaining concerns below and provide our responses in red.

I am pleased to accept your paper subject to technical corrections. My final remark is that the font of many figures is too small to be readable by naked eye on a A4 scale.

We looked again at the figures and agree Figures 4, 5, 6 and 9 need larger font sizes. We have increased the letters in these four figures.
