Metamorphic Testing of Machine Learning and Conceptual hydrologic Models

by Peter Reichert, Kai Ma, Marvin Höge, Fabrizio Fenicia, Marco Baity Jesi, Dapeng Feng and Chaopeng Shen

In this document we provide some additional results to demonstrate that the results shown in section 3 of the main paper 750 represent typical pattern also for other, similar basins.

Metamorphic Testing

Low Altitude Warm Basins

This section provides examples of the modelled response of low altitude, warm basins in addition to the one discussed in section 3.2.1. See section 3.2.1 for explanations.

The Figures SI.1 to SI.4 show the results for the last two years of the calibration period and for the first two years of the
validation period for the basin 11468500.

The Figures SI.5 to SI.8 show the results for the last two years of the calibration period and for the first two years of the 760 validation period for the basin 08014500.

The Figures SI.9 to SI.12 show the results for the last two years of the calibration period and for the first two years of the
validation period for the basin 02363000.

765 The Figures SI.13 to SI.16 show the results for the last two years of the calibration period and for the first two years of the validation period for the basin 12013500.
